A STRANGE GUEST.

In a little post town among the Highlands of Scotland, far away from any great city, there lived a few years ago a woman much respected and well beloved, though of lowly and humble fortune—one Mrs. Jean Anderson. She had been left a widow with one son, the youngest and last of several children. She was poor, and her industry was taxed to the utmost to keep herself and her son, and to give him the education he ardently desired.

At the early age of sixteen Malcome Anderson resolved to seek his fortune in the wide world, and became a sailor. He made several voyages to India and China and always, like the good boy he was, brought some useful present to his mother, to whom he gave a large portion of his earnings. But he never liked a seafaring life, though he grew strong and stalwart in it; and when about nineteen he obtained a humble position in a large mercantile house in Calcutta, where being shrewd, enterprising and honest, like most of his countrymen, he gradually rose to a place of trust and importance, and finally became a partner. As his fortune improved, his mother's circumstances were made easier. He remitted her money to secure her the old cottage home, repaired and enlarged with a garden and lawn, and placed at her command annually a sum sufficient to meet all her wants, and to pay the wages of a faithful servant, or rather companion; for the brisk, independent old lady refused to be served by any one.

Entangled in business cares, Mr. Anderson never found time and freedom for a long voyage and visit home, till at last failing health and the necessity of educating his children, compelled him to abruptly wind up his affairs and return to Scotland. He was then a man somewhat over forty, but looking far older than his years, showing all the usual effects of the trying climate. He was gray and somewhat bald, with here and there a dash of white in his dark, auburn beard; was thin, and a little bent, but his youthful smile remained full of quiet drollery, and his eye had not lost its old and gleeful sparkle by pouring over ledgers and rupees.

He had married a country woman, a daughter of a Scotch surgeon, and had two children, a son and daughter. He did not write to his good mother that he was coming home, as he wished to surprise her, and test her memory of her sailor boy. The voyage was made without accident.

One Summer afternoon Mr. Malcome Anderson arrived with his family at his native town. Putting up at a little inn, he proceeded to dress himself in a suit of sailor clothes, and then walked out alone by a path he well knew, and then through a shady lane, dear to his hazel-nutting days, all strangely unchanged, he approached his mother's cottage. He stopped for a moment on the lawn outside to curb down the heart that was bounding to meet that mother, and clear his eyes of a little mist of tears. Through the window he caught a glimpse of her sitting alone at the spinning wheel as in old times.

But, alas! how changed! Bowed was the dear old form, once so erect, and silvered the locks so brown, and dimmed the eyes once so full of brightness, like dew-stained violets, but the voice with which she was croning softly to herself was still sweet, and there sat on her cheek the same lovely peach bloom of twenty years ago.

At length he knocked, and the dear remembered voice called, "Coom ben!" The widow rose at the sight of the stranger, and courteously offered him a chair. Thanking her in an assumed voice, somewhat gruff, he sank down, as though wearied, saying that he was a wayfarer, a stranger to the country. The twilight favored him in his little ruse; he saw that she did not recognize him, even as one she had ever known. But after giving him the information he desired, she asked him if he were a Scotchman by birth.

"Yes, madam," he replied, "but I have been away in foreign parts many years. I doubt if my own mother would know me now, though she was very fond of me before I went o sea."

"Ah, noo! it's little ye ken about mithers, if ye think sae. I can tell ye there is na mortal memory like theirs," the widow somewhat warmly replied; then added, "And where hae ye lost the Scotch frae your speech?"

"India—in Calcutta madam."

"Ay then it's likely ye ken something o'my son, Malcome Anderson."

"Anderson?" repeated the visitor, as though trying to remember. "There may be many of that name in Calcutta, but is your son a rich merchant, a man about my age and size, with something such a figure head?"

"My son is a rich merchant," replied the widow proudly; "but he is younger than you by many a long year, and, begging your pardon, sir, far bonnier. He is tall and straight, wi' hands and feet like a lassie and has brown curling hair, sa thick and glossy, and cheeks like the rose, and a brow like the snaw, and big blue een, wi' a glint in them, like the light of an evening star. Na! na! you are a guid enough boy, I dinna doubt, but you are nae like mine."

Here the masquerading merchant, considerably taken down, made a movement as though to leave, but the hospitable dame stayed him, saying: "Gin ye hae traveled a' the way fra India, ye maun be tired and hungry. Bide a bit and eat and drink wi' us. Margy, come down, and let us set on the supper."

The two women soon prepared quite a sumptuous repast, and they all three sat down to it, Mrs. Anderson, reverently asking a blessing. But the merchant could not eat. He was only hungry for his mother's kisses, only thirsty for her joyful recognition; yet he could not bring himself to say to her, "I am your son." He asked of himself, half grieved, half amused, "where are the natural instincts I have read about in novels?"

His hostess seeing he did not eat, kindly asked if he could suggest anything he would be likely to relish, "I thank you, madam," he answered, "it does seem to me that I should like some oatmeal porridge, such as my mother used to make, if so be you had any."

"Porridge?" repeated the widow. "Ah, he means paritch. Yes, hae' a little left frae our dinner. Gie it to him, Margery. But mon, I guess it is cauld."

"Never mind; I know I shall like it," he rejoined, taking the bowl and beginning to stir the porridge with his spoon. As he did so, Mrs. Anderson gave a start and bent eagerly toward him, then sank back in her chair with a sigh, saying in answer to his questioning look, "Ye minded me of my Malcome then; just in that way he used to stir his paritch—giving it a whirl and a flirt. Ah, gin ye were my puir laddie!"

"Weel then, gin were Malcome," said the merchant, speaking for the first time in the Scottish dialect, and in his own voice, "or gin yer boy were broon, and gray, and oent and old as I am, could you welcome him to your arms and love him as in the auld lang syne? Could you, mither?"

All through this touching little speech the widow's eyes had been glistening, and her breath coming fast, but at the word "mither," she sprang up with a cry, tottering to her son, and fell almost fainting on his breast. He kissed her; kissed her brow, and her lips, and her hands, and the big tears slid down his bronzed cheeks, while she clung about his neck and called him by all the pet names and tried to see in him the dear young looks. By-and-by they came back, or the ghosts of them came back. The form in her embrace grew comelier; love and joy gave it a second youth, stately and gracious; the first she then and there buried deep in her heart, a sweet, beautiful, peculiar memory. It was a moment of sweet renunciation in which she gave up the fond material illusion she had cherished so long. Then looking up suddenly into the face of the middle aged man who had taken the place, she said:

"Where hae ye left the wife and the bairns?"

"At the inn, mother. Have you room for us at the cottage?"

"Indeed I have—two gude spare rooms wi' large closets, weel stocked wi' linen I have been spinning or weaving a' these lang years for ye baith and the weans."

"Well, mother, dear, now you must rest," rejoined the merchant tenderly.

"Na, na, I dinna care to rest. There will be time enough between that day and the resurrection to fauld my arms in idleness. Now 'twould be unco' irksome. But go, my son, and bring me the wife. I hope I shall like her; and the bairns, I hope they will like me."

I have only to say that both the hopes of the good woman were realized. A very happy family knelt down in prayer that night, and many nights after, in the widow's cottage, whose climbing roses and woodbines were but outward signs and types of the sweetness and blessedness of the peace and love within.

IDLE GIRLS.—It is a painful spectacle in families where the mother is the drudge, to see the daughters, elegantly dressed, reclining at their ease with their drawing, their music, their fancy work and their reading, beguiling themselves of the lapse of hours, days and weeks, and never dreaming of their responsibilities, but as a necessary consequence of neglect of duty, growing weary of their useless lives, laying hold of every newly invented stimulant to rouse their drooping energies, and blaming their fate, when they dare not blame their God, for having placed them where they are. These individuals will often tell you, with an air of affected compassion, (for who can believe it real?) that poor dear mamma is working herself to death; yet no sooner do you propose that they should assist her than they declare she is quite in her element; in short she never would be happy if she only had half as much to do. When taught at their mother's knee, at the home fireside, in school, and in society, that it is as disgraceful for them to be loafers as it is for their brothers, we shall have girls demanding and getting that thoroughness of mental and technical training which is needed in the legitimate and successful pursuit of any employment, and not before. We shall have a standard then for scholarship, and women will look upon education as something better than mental ruffles and furbelows, or as a mere means of enabling them to support themselves in genteel independence until they can marry, and we shall hear no more of lack of employment for women.

LONDON REPUBLICANS' PROGRAMME.—A programme has been issued by the London Republicans, in which they state their object to be "the attainment of the highest standard of political and social rights of man, and the promotion of the intellectual, moral and material welfare of mankind." The means to realize this object are set down as—"1st, Application of the federation, principle to all Republican States. 2d, Abolition of aristocratic titles and privileges. 3rd, Suppression of all monopolies. 4th, Abolition of standing armies. 5th, Compulsory gratuitous secular and industrial education. 6th, Obligation of the State to provide suitable employment for all citizens able to work, and sustenance for the incapacitated. None to live upon the work of others. 7th, Nationalization of land. 8th, Direct legislation by the people." Among the means to carry out the principles, including the unity of Republicans, establishment of Republican clubs, and diffusion of Republican principles, is the following: "The establishment of a high court of Republican equity under the name of the Republican Areopagus, which shall judge all violations of the laws of humanity and the rights of man committed by crowned heads, statesmen parliaments, law courts, etc."

LITTLE THINGS.—The preciousness of little things was never more beautifully expressed than by B. F. Taylor in the following: "Little words are the sweetest to hear; little charities fly farthest, and stay longest on the wing; little lakes are the stillest; little hearts are the fullest, and little farms are the best tilled. Little books are the most read, and little songs the most loved. And when nature would make anything especially rare and beautiful, she makes it little—little pearls, little diamonds, little gems. Everybody calls that little which he loves best on this earth."

APPROPRIATE NAMES.—For a printer's wife, Em; for a sport's wife, Bet-ty; for a lawyer's wife, Sue; for a general's wife, Sally; for a teamster's wife, Carrie; for a fisherman's wife, Net-ty; for a shoemaker's wife, Peggy; for a carpetman's wife, Mat-tie; for an auctioneer's wife, Bid-dy; for a chemist's wife, Ann Eliza; for an engineer's wife, Bridg-it; for a farmer's wife Gerusha.

The Fires in Wisconsin.

[Correspondence of the Milwaukee Sentinel.]

MENOMINEE, October 9th, 1871.—The village of Peshtigo is burned to the ground, and from 1,000 to 1,500 persons are out of home and employment. The fire was seen last night first at half past eight, and at ten P. M. every building was on fire, together with the Great Peshtigo Manufacturing Company's pail and tub factory. The fire came from the southwest, and was heard coming an hour before it burst upon the town, and many were wakened from sleep with barely time to go to the river and sink themselves in the water to save their lives. No mortal could live in such a heat. The flames rolled mountain high and swept every building, stable and fence, and left a scene most horrible to behold. J. J. Tauer nearly perished in saving his family and lost three in the flames, and Beebe's family saved but one child, and some one took this child to the river.

The whole town ran for the river, hanging on to logs and booms, and had frequently to duck their heads to save their lives. As many as seventy-five are supposed to have been burnt to death. Children and mothers, and husbands and wives are separated by the fire king, never to meet again. The people have been fighting for two weeks the sugar-bush west of town—and then the fire king moved on the town, blowing great billows of flame. The five-story building of the Peshtigo Manufacturing Company was lost, with all the stock and machinery, and stores and warehouses, and the Peshtigo House—all the stores and property to the amount of five to ten millions.

I just hear of the death of seventy-five persons who could get to no water, and were strangled and burnt to death. Horses, cattle and wagons and all movable property were burnt, and many are on board this boat, the "St. Jo," with heads burnt, and eyes burnt out and ears off.

Some saved themselves by hiding in wells and burying themselves in the sand, and in one instance five women perished by a log turning, when they sank to rise no more. Fires are raging near this place, and 100 or more are fighting the flames off, and all who can are helping their neighboring families, and many entire families are burnt out. The loss cannot be counted. A small village, twelve miles from here, of eighteen persons, perished at Burch Creek, and it is sickening to see the sufferers come, with eyes out and fearfully maimed, some for life. Many children were lost wandering from their homes to the river. The whole west coast is on fire, from Green Bay to Menominee. The manufacturing company were making from two to three thousand pails daily, and the whole farming and lumbering country for miles around Peshtigo is burnt over. The streets are as hard as brick, and some predict it will never be rebuilt. We shall probably hear of other and more dreadful losses. Other towns are threatened—Depere, Wrightstown and Fort Howard. Fires are raging in and around them, and God only knows when all this will end. One good rain would stop all, but for weeks no rain has visited this section. After a while a more complete list of the lost and damages will be published, but at present all is agony and confusion. It was said in thirty minutes after the awful roaring was heard in the woods the whole town was in flames, and in Peshtigo no lumber was to be found to make coffins to bury the dead. One man was passing the benzine house with his family, when it exploded, and the whole family was lost except himself. This boat is full of the wounded and sufferers. The people of Marinet and Menominee have all done their duty to the survivors in clothing, food and money, and many a man took off his coat to give to his neighbor who had lost all. The steamers are held here to take people from here to Green Bay. But while I write rain begins to pour down, and the ravages of the fire king may be checked. We are safe in Fort Howard. Yours, in haste, B. N. COON.

ONE DAY AT A TIME.—"Take no thought of the morrow;" that is, no fretful anxious thought. Walk through to-day as well as you can, and God will undertake for your future. When you go forward out of to-day, to worry about it, you are over the fence, you are trespassing, and God will scourge you back into your own lot. When I have been fishing in a mountain stream, I have always found that so long as I kept a short line I could manage my fishing very well, but when I let my line run out, the stream took it down, and there it was, at the mercy of every stick that stuck up in the stream and every rock that jutted out from the banks. I lost my fish and I tangled my line; very likely I lost my footing also, and got over head and ears in the stream. Now, most men have cast out their line into life forty long years, when it ought to be but one day long. In consequence they are not able to manage their tackle at all, but are pulled after it, stumbling first into this hole, and then into that, slipping up here, and slipping down there, struggling and splashing about in a far more distressed fashion than the fish at the other end of the line—and, as a general thing, there is no fish there. Haul in your line!

FACTS ABOUT THE BIBLE.—A prisoner coudemned to solitary confinement, obtained a copy of the Bible and after three years careful study obtained the following facts: "The Bible contains 3,586,489 letters, 774,692 words, 31,173 verses, 1,189 chapters and 66 books. The word and occurs 46,227 times. The word Lord occurs 2,855 times. The word Reverend occurs but once, which is in the 9th verse of the 117th Psalm. The middle verse is the 8th verse of the 118th Psalm. The 21st verse of the 7th chapter of Ezra contains all the letters of the alphabet except the letter J. The finest chapter to read is the 26th chapter of II. Kings and the 37th chapter of Isaiah are alike. The longest verse is the 9th verse of the 8th chapter of Esther. The Shortest verse is the 35th verse of the 11th chapter of St. John. The 8th, 15th, 21st and 31st verses of the 107th Psalm are alike. Each verse of the 136th Psalm end alike. There are no words or names of more than six syllables.

THE Insurance companies are nearly all paying up in full the amount of their risks on property lost in Chicago. The Liverpool and Globe owe $6,000,000; which their local agents are ordered to pay up at once.

A True Bill—Greeley on Grant.

At a complimentary private supper to Horace Greeley, in the Tremont House, at Chicago, a few evenings since, as we read in our exchanges, Mr. Greeley met his Republican friends, and in response to certain compliments to himself, made the following explicit statement of his opinion of President Grant:

"If we nominate Grant we shall certainly be defeated. The public will stand no more horse jockey and present-taking Presidents. We have had enough of them. I tell you, gentlemen, we must take a new departure, and I can assure you that we of the East are determined it shall be done. I have been rather quiet about it so far, but I want everybody now to understand what I think. When we take hold of Grant it will not be with silk gloves on our hands. It has got to be done. We must throw Grant overboard or we shall be defeated."

Hon. Mr. Grinnell, of Iowa, who with Long John Wentworth, was present, here interposed an objection:

"But what would you have us do, Mr. Greeley? Suppose we throw Grant over, what can we do? You know our people don't want to jump out of the frying-pan into the fire. Now if you will give us the slightest hope that you intend to put your own name forward, we would willingly throw out Grant."

To this Mr. Greeley made a reply which is full of significance. It shows what the editor of the Tribune (as well as most Republicans) thinks of Gen. Grant and Gen. Grant's purposes. Said Mr. Greeley:

"All I want is to have a good man nominated, who, if elected, will consent to give up his office at the end of his term. Besides I want to nominate a man who, if elected, will elevate the office to where it was in former days; a man who will not take presents or use the military or his office holders to advance his own aspirations for a second term, and in the meantime neglect the interests of those whose ruler he is. Besides I want a man who is above mere pleasure-hunting, a man who will not dawdle away one-fourth of his term amid the follies and frivolities of a watering place, and one who, when called upon for an expression of his views on political and other subjects of national interest, can give them in clear and comprehensive language. That's the kind of man the people want, and (bringing his fist down on the table) that's the kind of man we haven't now. I want you, gentlemen, to tell your people here in the West that we are going to fight against Grant to the extent of our ability. We will not remain passive or indifferent, but, to use his own words, we are going to "fight it out on this line."

This is square and to the point. What Mr. Greeley says thousands with less courage and independence think. The line drawn is a true one, and every sensible Republican knows it.

AN ISLAND OF GOLD.—A New Jersey paper, professing to have knowledge of the facts, says: "Some three months since, a small island in the Caribbean Sea, known as the Bimita, and about 800 miles south of Trinidad, while being explored, under the direction of Agassiz, was found to contain gold. The rock is quartose, and quietly a few individuals obtained possession of the island, and these individuals—all Americans—will not dispose of any interest, although, last week, several offers from English capitalists in London were received, information having reached the Custom-House, as is supposed, although every arrangement has been made to keep the matter as quiet as possible. The gold is free, easily amalgamated, and in purity in veins in the quartz. Forty different veins have been discovered on the island, and five are now being worked, and the ore is being received from ships at the Centerville Works, in Greenville, in Hudson county, New Jersey. The works are running night and day. The ore is now, with very imperfect machinery, yielding sixty dollars per ton, and they are only getting one-third of the gold, but the tailings are being saved, with the view of running them through an improved machine now being constructed. The ore is as rich as the richest ores of California and Venezuela."

A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE TO VIRGINIA.—In a speech made recently at Louisville, Ky., the Hon. D. W. Voorhees, of Indiana, said: "If I, on the other hand, was calling witnesses for the Democracy, I would point first to the old State of Virginia, the most afflicted of all, the most torn to pieces of all, with her male population driven away, her bosom thrashed with the thrashing machine of death from one border to the other. She has emerged as from a fire of ten-fold heat, but she has fallen into the hands of Conservatism and not of Radicalism, and no Radical, not even Ben Butler, dares wag his foul tongue or point his felonious finger at her. [Cheers.] And this I said to him, too, on the floor of the House. Virginia, the very head and front of the struggle on the part of the South—she in whose bosom lies more buried patriotism than in any other equal space of ground the sun shines upon—[applause]—where heroes surpassing those that Homer sung of met and clashed their swords and bled and died—she on whose fate the whole South hung, who never faltered, and when her great leaders laid down their swords all others were laid down."

WHO IS OLD.—A wise man will never rust out. As long as he can move or breathe he will be doing something for himself, for his neighbor, or for posterity. Almost to the last hour of his life, Washington was at work, so were Young, Howard and Newton. The vigor of their lives never decayed. No rust marred their spirits. It is a foolish idea to suppose that we must lie down and die because we are old. Who is old? Not the man of energy, not the day laborer in science, art or benevolence; but he only who suffers his energies to waste away and the springs of life to become motionless; on whose hands the hours drag heavily, and to whom all things wear the garb of gloom. Is he old, should not be asked; but is he active?—can he breathe freely and move with agility? There are scores of gray-headed men we should prefer, in any important enterprise to those young men who fear and tremble at approaching shadows, and turn pale at a lion in their path, at a harsh word or a frown.

Spontaneous Combustion.

In March last, a well-known Detroit chemist, assisted by two seriously inclined and science loving gentlemen, resolved to make a number of experiments to test the worth of this talk about spontaneous combustion, and their experiments are well worth the attention of every reader.

They first took a piece of cotton cloth which had once formed a part of a sheet, and which had been used until quite threadbare, and smeared it with boiled linseed oil. An old chest was placed in the loft of a store room back of the drug store, a piece of zinc over it, another piece under it, and the chest filled with paper and rags, and this particular piece of cloth placed in the centre. Although the room was not a light one, and the weather cold, in eight days there was such a smell of fire about the trunk, and the chances were so good for a conflagration within it, that the contents were emptied out. An examination showed that the fibre of the oil cloth had untwisted and shriveled up, and that the rag looked as if it had been held too near a hot blaze.

In April, when the rays of the sun were stronger, a pair of painter's overalls, literally covered with paint and oil, were rolled up, a handfull of pine shavings placed inside, and these crowded in next to the roof boards of the loft. The experiment was not a week old when, during one warm afternoon, a smell of smoke alarmed a workman in the next room, and he found the overalls burning, and so tinder-like was the cloth that it had to be crowded into a pail of water to prevent total destruction.

During the hot weather, a handful of old cotton rags, in which two matches were placed, but which were not smeared with oil or other matter, were shut up in a thin box, and hung up in the loft, a rear window allowing the afternoon sun to shine directly on the box for several hours. Towards the close of the fourth day the chemist took down the box to see how the experiment was progressing, and found the contents to consist of nothing but a puff of black cinders, which flew out as the lid was lifted.

Having a vacant corner in the brick woodhouse at home, the chemist took a trunk up there, where there was no danger of burning the building. He filled the trunk with the contents of the paper rag bag, and then smeared one with benzine and threw it in last of all. The trunk was shut tight, everything cleared away from its vicinity, and he commenced watching. On the first day of Van Amburgh's menagerie the family went to witness the sight, and came home to find a few ashes marking the place where the trunk had stood, while the bricks above and around were badly stained with the smoke.—Detroit Free Press.

THE NEXT WHEAT HARVEST.—We have already noted the fact that whereas in the State there was not moisture enough to mature an average wheat crop, the farmers this year have come out a long way ahead. The crop in many instances, on account of high prices, has been worth as much as the farm cost. The dairy men, particularly those who rented dairy farms, have complained of a dull season, and many of them are disposed to try their chances at wheat growing. In the long run the dairy men have made more satisfactory profits than the wheat growers. But the impression now prevails that high prices for wheat will rule until another crop is matured and sold. There is also a general impression that the rains will be abundant during the coming winter. These two considerations are having an influence in turning attention to the next wheat harvest. From present appearances we judge that a greater breadth of land will be sown to wheat the coming season than ever before. It is a make or break policy. Many farmers say that they only want one good season to make them all right, and they are willing to take the risk. If there had been a full crop of wheat, for instance, this year in San Joaquin Valley, the returns would have exceeded the cost of all the land in the Valley.—Bulletin.

FREE BALLOT.—We take the following from the New York World of Oct. 2d: "Before us lies a bit of pasteboard, five inches long and three-fourths of an inch wide, which better betrays the Republican distrust of freemen's ballots than even the hypocrisy of their solicitude to guard New York's polling booths by bayonets. The back of this bit of pasteboard is printed in colors on a geometrical pattern; the face is covered with the names of the Republican party's candidates for offices, from Governor of California to road-master in Vallejo. The type in which these names are printed is of the smallest diamond size—so small that not a name can possibly be interlined, and not a blank space between the names is a sixteenth of an inch square. These are the tickets that workmen in the employ of the United States, and men bought up by Republican money like cattle, were marched up to deposit in platoons,

"——to execute a freeman's will,
As lightning does the will of God."

BEAUTIES OF THE TARIFF.—One hundred bushels of wheat will buy in Liverpool 700 pounds of blankets; in New York they will exchange for only 350 pounds. A gold dollar will buy twice as much salt in England or Spain as in the United States. A gold dollar will in London purchase one and a third yards of tapestry Brussels carpeting; in New York it will buy but three-fourths of a yard. In 1850, in New York city, 100 bushels of wheat would buy 4,833 pounds of cut nails; in 1871 they will purchase but 2,700 pounds. This is what the Republican party has done for the people. If the people wish to be able to buy the necessaries of life at reasonable prices, they must elect Democratic representatives. The Democratic party is opposed to the High Protective Tariff system.

AT the annual election at Waterbury, Conn., the Democracy, contrary to expectation, elected their ticket by a sweeping majority. They elect their Mayor, City Clerk, Auditor, Treasurer, and have a majority in the Board of Aldermen and Councilmen. The canvass was most thorough, and the Republicans had made the most desperate efforts to gain the day. The result was that the Democrats had a majority of 237—a gain of 187 over the vote of 1869, and 225 over the vote of last year.

COUNTY AND TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

WOODLAND, CAL:

Saturday, October 28th, 1871.

LUSK & Co., of San Francisco, had 2,400 cans of fruit destroyed in the Chicago fire, their first shipment this season.

APPROACHING.—Very heavy rains have fallen in Arizona and a good shower is reported to have fallen at San Diego on the 22d instant.

RESULT IN THE STATE.—The Republican papers claim that their party carried the State at the Judicial election by from 10,000 to 12,000 majority.

WON'T SELL.—Bennet, of the New York Herald, has been offered for that establishment two and a quarter million dollars, but firmly refuses to sell.

OFF FOR WASHINGTON.—J. M. Coghlan, Member of Congress from this district, intends to start East with his family between the 1st and 15th proximo.

POSTPONED.—The case of Laura D. Fair came up on appeal before the Supreme Court in Sacramento on the 24th, but was postponed till November 11th proximo.

MECHANICS.—There is a good chance for idle mechanics now in Chicago. Building is going on with rapid strides, and there is a great demand for builders of all kinds.

THE CHANGE OF ROUTE.—The Vallejo Chronicle says that the time has again been changed for the arrival of the overland trains at Vallejo. The 30th instant is now fixed upon.

AID FOR CHICAGO.—The Spirit of the Times estimates the amount of money, provisions and clothing furnished the citizens of Chicago, will not fall short of twenty-five millions.

"TAPE WORM TICKETS."—The Solano Democrat says the tickets used in Vallejo at the Judicial election discount those used in September and calls them "the tape worm tickets."

SPECIAL ELECTION.—Governor Haight has called a special election for November 25th, in San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara counties, to choose a successor of Senator Pacheco, resigned.

TOWN BURNED.—The Downieville Messenger publishes an account of the burning of the town of Pine Grove on Thursday of last week. It was caused by sparks from burning stumps in the suburbs.

SUFFERING NEAR HOME.—The Stockton papers say that some families living on the west side of San Joaquin Valley near Stockton, are living on boiled barley, and some of them have not enough of that.

VOTE OF SAN FRANCISCO.—Complete returns in San Francisco make the respective majorities as follows: Rhodes, 3,701; Niles, 4,409; Bolander, 4,881; Myrick, 4,986; Blake, 1,186; Louderback, 5,923.

SCRIP FOR SQUIRRELS AND GOPHERS. There is now over $10,000 worth of unpaid squirrel and gopher scrip registered in Alameda county, and with the present rate of taxation only about $2,000 of it can be paid this year.

NEGROES.—There are four States in the Union where the negro exceeds the white population, viz: South Carolina, Florida, Mississipi, and Louisiana. In South Carolina there are more than twice as many negroes as whites.

YREKA UNION.—This staunch Democratic weekly has commenced upon its twentieth volume. There are very few more reliable papers in California that the Yreka Union, which has our best wishes for continued years of prosperity.

FIFTEENTH VOLUME.—The Sonoma Democrat, one of the best country weeklies in California, as it has been one of the most successful, has commenced its fifteenth volume. We trust it will continue to prosper and do good as in the past.

THIRTEENTH VOLUME.—The Amador Dispatch, a stirling little Democratic paper, has entered upon its thirteenth volume under very favorable prospects. It is a well conducted paper and deserves success.

THE BIG PRIZE.—The $10,000 prize in the Folsom lottery was won by Frank Shippey, of Marysville, a young man who works for a living; but as the managers could not sell their tickets they only paid one quarter of the amount the prize tickets called for.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—About noon on Thursday the overland train on the Western Pacific Railroad ran off the track when going at the rate of 30 miles an hour. No lives were lost, but many passengers were severely injured; some of the cars rolled completely over.

VERY BITTER.—The war of words in the Republican papers over the Senatorial nomination waxes hotter and hotter. No sooner does a party come into power, now-a-days, than a fight begins for the offices. As it is not our fight this time we care little who wins, but hope for the best man.

DEMOCRATIC JUDGES.—In Yolo, a Democratic county, the Republican candidate for County Judge was elected by Democrats staying away from the polls. On the other hand, in Napa, Contra Costa, and we think other Republican counties, the Democratic candidates for County Judges were elected.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Although the Democrats were defeated in the late election in this State, a review of the situation does not give so bad a showing as many suppose. A majority of the County Judges elected are those put forward by the Democrats. We still have a majority on the Supreme Bench, and fourteen of the seventeen District Judges. The State Senate is also Democratic by a clear majority. The Sacramento Reporter says:

It may be very comfortable to know that although Democrats will not only be able, by means of a Democratic Senate, to prevent the passage of any Radical measure, but by their Judiciary they will interpret such laws as may be passed as well as those which are already upon the statute-book. For the next two years the Democrats will have a majority of the County Judges, and fourteen out of seventeen District Judges.

The Presidential campaign is already opening at the East. The various Presidential aspirants are casting about to discover the possible chances of a nomination. Grant is disposing his troops and laying his wires to secure a renomination, but if he secures it there will be a split in the Radical party which will surely defeat its candidates before the people. If the Democrats are careful in their nomination of a candidate, and present a good platform to the country, we see no reason, provided the people are allowed to choose, why California and the whole country, with the exception of New England and three or four of the more Radical Western States, should not go Democratic next year and elect a Democratic President. As we have shown from time to time in the publication of extracts from Eastern Republican journals, there is great dissatisfaction with Grant and his administration, and it is extremely doubtful if there is another upon whom the whole party would unite.

In view of these facts the prospects of the Democracy are by no means gloomy. It may take some little time to recover from the apathy into which many have fallen since the September election; but that will soon pass away. When we begin to realize that the management of the State is in the hands of our opponents, it will stir us up to renewed exertions, unite the party, and we trust result in its triumph at the Presidential election next year.

SIGNIFICANT FIGURES.—The Cincinnati Enquirer calls attention to the following figures, which show in striking light the iniquities of the present thieving tariff: "The way we 'protect American Labor' is shown in the prices at which three of the leading sewing machines are sold in the United States and England.

	Price in Eng.	In U. S.
Wheeler & Wilson	$45 00	$85 00
New Singer	32 50	65 00
Elias Howe	35 00	65 00

The above prices are for precisely the same class of machines as sold in both countries. This is according to the sworn affidavit, in Cleveland, Ohio, of G. W. Wilson, the President of the Wilson Sewing Machine Company. Those who buy and use sewing machines would do well to make a note of this fact. The reason of the difference in price is the cost of the material that enters into the construction of the machine. That difference is produced by a high tariff for the benefit of certain interests favored by the Republican party.

THE VOTE OF YOLO COUNTY.—The returns show a difference in the total vote of this county at the September and October elections of 305. At the general election, in September, there were polled in the county 2,190 votes, of which 1,126 were cast by Democrats, and 1,064 by Republicans. At the Judicial election the total vote of the county was 1,885, of which 955 were Republican and 930 Democratic. The decrease in the Democratic vote at the last election from that of the month before is 196, while the difference in the Republican vote is only 109. This shows that while the total vote of the county was one-seventh less, 87 more Democrats than Republicans failed to vote at the last election, and hence the result.

WHAT ELECTED BOOTH.—A good many of the leading Republicans hereabout deny that the Central Pacific Railroad Company had anything to do with the election of Newton Booth, as Democrats have insisted it had. The Sacramento Record, the organ of the company says "Every sane man knows that the influence of the Railroad Company was exerted in behalf of Newton Booth throughout the campaign. And since the Union persists in these lies, we will go further and express the opinion that without the aid of the Railroad Company Mr. Booth, would not have been elected."

THE RETURNS.—The Solano Democrat says that "an examination of the returns shows that we polled a larger vote by three thousand five hundred than we did for Seymour—a larger vote by eight thousand than we did for Haight in 1867—three thousand more than Grant got in 1868." This being the case, it is very strange that we should have fallen so much behind at the elections this fall, and there are strong suspicions of foul play. That there was coercion of Democrats and purchasing of votes practiced by the Republicans none will deny.

RIOT AT LOS ANGELES.—On Tuesday a riot occurred in Los Angeles, resulting from the arrest of a Chinaman by a policeman. The Chinese fired upon the policeman, mortally wounding him and seriously wounding another man. The citizens were so exasperated that several Chinese were shot and fifteen were taken out and hung.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE:

The two highest elected in each Township.

Buckeye—William Sims, 108; Joseph Huls, 97; Indian Mike, 2.

Cottonwood—J. T. Dinwiddie, 193; E. E. Perkins, 146; J. R. Lowe, 65.

Merritt—George Cornish, 87; Stanton Myers, 37.

Cache Creek—J. H. Thompson, 368; S. N. Merring, 343; A. J. Hall, 246; O. B. Westcott, 132;

Washington—W. W. Crouse, 90; J. S. Stevenson, 74; J. L. Underhill, 58; Thos. L. Du-Bose, 30; O. H. Jackson, 5; G. W. Levy, 6; B. Carpenter, 1; John Huy, 1.

Fremont—Jackson Wilcoxson, 14.

IRRIGATION.—The great San Joaquin irrigating canal is being pushed forward in earnest. The Stockton Independent states it is to be completed to Los Bantos Creek, a distance of forty miles from its intersection with the river, and the water is to be turned in as soon as the dam is completed. Should the weather continue favorable for the prosecution of the work, and should the coming season be dry, a sufficient force of men will be put upon the work to carry it through this county in season to irrigate for the next crop. In any event, a large tract of land south of Los Bantos and between the canal and the river can be irrigated next season.

FIRES IN WESTERN NEW YORK.—Extensive fires are raging in the woods in Western New York. Rochester is so enveloped in smoke that the sun is obscured and artificial lights have to be used in the buildings in the day time. Many farm houses have been destroyed and an immense amount of timber and other valuable property. No hopes were entertained of extinguishing the fires till rain fell.

Since the above was in type news has arrived that the fires have been subdued.

TIN MINES.—A dispatch from Salt Lake dated October 23d says: "The tin mines of Ogden are attracting more attention. The Governor and a party of capitalists went to-day to visit them. Experienced miners and experts from Cornwall, England, report them wonderful, and that the vast quantities of ore in sight in the Star of the West will average 20 per cent. of fine tin. They say this discovery is destined to work a revolution in the tin trade of the world. Another tin mine is bonded for $200,000.

FEARS.—The Mail fears that in certain contingencies "it will not take much of a prophet to see that the Democracy will sweep the State at the next general election." Our opinion is that the Democracy will do just as it pleases, as it did at the last two elections. It has the power to either "sweep the State" or turn it over by default to our political opponents. With proper nominations, we have no fears but that the Democracy will do as the Mail suggests.

REDUCED.—The Nevada City Daily National Gazette has been somewhat reduced in size, but its editor promises that the reduction in quantity shall be fully made up in quality. It is a lively, well managed paper, up to the times in all its departments, taking a bold and leading course in politics on "our side." We are pleased to receive the National Gazette in exchange, and wish it abundant success.

FARMERS BORROWING.—It is stated in the city papers that the Sacramento Savings Bank has loaned $118,000 on Solano and Yolo farming lands. The dry season has necessitated the borrowing, and we are glad to find the credit of our farmers is so good. Such land as the farms of Yolo county will command cash at any time, and fortunately, just now the Banks are liberal in loaning it where they know their security is good.

REWARD.—A reward of $500 was offered by the Governor for the murderers of J. S. Anderson, in Tuolumne county, in August last by two men supposed to be Mexicans.

IMPROVING.—An editorial appears in the Mail headed "The Senatorial Question," and sub-headed "from the editor."

Correspondence from the National Capital.

[From One Who Knows.]

WASHINGTON, October 20th, 1871.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—Congress opens in a few weeks, and in anticipation of the event our hotels are crowded with office-seekers from all parts of the country, who are preparing their claims to present to the different departments, the majority of them are here, waiting the arrival of their member or Senator, so as to be the first to receive any favors which these distinguished individuals are disposed to grant them. Senators and Representatives will no doubt be thankful when all the offices are filled, as they are bored almost to death by the inevitable office-seeker, and their private sanctums are invaded at all times by the persistent applicant who will not be put off with no for an answer, but must have their names on their (the applicants,) papers before they will leave, or their case must be made a special one, and the Senator or Representative is compelled to drop all other business, no matter how important, and go to the department and get the office, before he will be permitted to rest. Long John Wentworth, while a member, told your correspondent that "the d—d office-seekers would not give him time to pray." I knew of one Senator who was compelled to change his place of residence two or three times during the last session to get rid of these pests; he would scarcely get settled down in his new quarters before they would be upon him like a pack of hungry wolves, and at last he was compelled to give up in despair, and submit to the torture. The old members who have passed through the ordeal, and have been initiated into the tricks and workings of these chaps, get rooms in Georgetown or some other out-of-the-way place, and thereby manage to evade these sticking plasters to a great extent. No person can form an idea to what extent office seeking is carried on, and what means the parties interested resort to to gain their object, money and women sometimes being freely used. It is a shameful fact that Senators and Representatives are compelled at times to recommend persons to office that they never saw before. Both Houses of Congress some time ago endeavored to abolish the present system of recommendations, but were defeated in the good work for want of time. Last session they passed a bill creating the civil service commission, whose duty, the bill stated, was to prescribe rules and regulations for the admission of persons into the civil service of the government; but up to date the commission has failed to protect either the department or our lawmakers. I have it from good authority that an effort will be made during the coming session of Congress to pass a bill providing for the retention of clerks, etc., in office during good behavior; this will, to a great extent, do away with the nuisance. Some stringent measures must be adopted for the protection of Congress and the departments, as the thing has become a disgrace to this nation, and opens the way to fraud and theft. Merit to day is not considered as a recommendation for a position. The Civil Service Commission might and could make itself famous and receive the applause of the American people by breaking up the present mode of distributing public patronage.

The President is still absent in Boston. He went there in the early part of this week, in company with the Postmaster-General, to assist in laying the corner-stone of the new postoffice that is about to be erected by the government in that city.

General Sherman has obtained a leave of absence to visit Europe. He will be accompanied by Col. Andenreid of his staff. While away the General will make a military inspection of the European armies and fortifications, and visit the late battle-fields in France. The object of the visit is no doubt to ascertain the modus operandi of European warfare.

The position of Commissioner of Indian Affairs still remains vacant, notwithstanding there are hundreds of applications on file for the position, and numerous gentlemen are visiting the Secretary daily and attempting to convince him that they are the very men for the place and would serve the government faithfully in that capacity. The place was tendered to Mr. Brunot, some time ago by the President, but he positively refuses the honor. The position is still held open, with the hope that he will be induced to accept the same upon his return to this city. Mr. Brunot is now out West on a tour of inspection among the various Indian tribes on our frontier. He would make an excellent Commissioner, as he is well acquainted with the wishes and wants of the red-skins, and was very active in exposing the late frauds that were attempted in this department some months ago.

On the 17th instant the President issued a proclamation declaring the counties of Spartanburg, York, Marion, Chester, Laurens, Newberry, Fairfield, Lancaster, and Chesterfield, in South Carolina, to be in a state of insurrection, and suspending the writ of habeas corpus in the same. The War Department is now making out the necessary orders to forward to the military Commanders, so that they can act advisedly in the matter.

The following Official Order needs no comment and explains itself:

"Lieut. General Phil H. Sheridan, Chicago, Ill. The Secretary of War directs that you will give to the sufferers in Michigan and Wisconsin such aid as you may deem advisable."

"JOHN POTTS, Chief Clerk."

If agreeable to you and to your readers I will drop you a few paragraphs from time to time hereafter, as I expect to remain here through the coming winter. Respectfully yours,

OBSERVER.

The Vile Work Progresses.

The hell-hounds of the Washington usurpers are still at work on the poor, prostrate and defenseless people of South Carolina. The best citizens of the State are arrested each day, torn from their helpless and unprotected families, and thrust into jail. Women and children are the greatest sufferers, and are fleeing in terror before Grant's myrmidons. So shocking is the work in which the soldiery is engaged that, the dispatch says, "private soldiers are advising citizens to fly to avoid arrest."

Another dispatch says, "It appears that there was a good deal of carelessness exhibited in drafting the President's proclamation declaring martial law in South Carolina. One of the counties intended to be included in the so-called insurrectionary district was omitted altogether, and one included, the county of Marion, of which the Radical Senator from that quarter writes that he never knew of a more peacable place."

Was there ever anything in the whole history of civilized government more damnably atrocious than this? Here is the President of a professedly free government, claiming to be limited in its operations, setting aside the Constitution and trampling upon the liberties of the citizen in a manner so careless as to declare martial law in a county as peaceful as any in the United States. What a mockery of justice it is to have criminal courts and sentence men to be hanged and sent to the penitentiaries for the violation of some local code, when here is the head of the Republic committing in broad daylight greater crimes than any which were ever expatiated on the gallows in any State of the Union. And yet the American people stand listlessly by, like craven slaves, and utter no word of protest. Had they one-half the spirit and devotion to liberty which animated our fathers in the days of the revolution they would rise up and hang the wicked usurper who calls himself President, together with his corrupt, unprincipled and thieving advisers.

There is no more necessity for these proceedings in South Carolina than there is in California. The whole thing is a wanton war upon a helpless people, in order to manufacture political capital for a party. The Republican leaders know that it is only through civil commotion and social agitation they can prolong their power. "Let us have peace" means, carried out in good earnest, let the Radicals give up power, and for that reason they have determined there shall be no peace. And so the war has been inaugurated in poor, downtrodden and bedeviled South Carolina, to be extended, no doubt, to other States in due time. We have faith in the justice of an omnipotent God, and, therefore, we believe that we will yet see the day when the authors of these great crimes will expiate them in blood. The people will not be stolid forever. An idiot may be pricked into desperation. —Examiner.

NAPA WINE INTEREST.—The Napa Register has this in regard to the wine interests of Napa county:

Wine casks and vats are staple articles in our market just now, and command full prices. Every day we see wagon loads of these necessary adjuncts to wine makers, passing through our streets en route to St. Helena and Calistoga-ward. To give our readers at a distance some idea of the number of casks required every day by our wine makers, we may state that one establishment at St. Helena turns out 3,000 gallons per day, while there are half a dozen or more establishments of nearly equal capacity in the county. In this city we have two wine presses constantly at work, turning out from one to two thousand gallons daily, and if casks could be procured easily and at fair rates, the quantity of wine made per day would be greatly increased. Wine business is fast assuming an importance in our county, second only to that of wheat culture.

The Killing of Glasscock.

The killing of Marsh Glasscock, formerly of this county, which we mentioned last week as having occurred four miles from the Ohio House, in Colusa county, by a man named Wells, it seems was in the main correct. The man's name who killed Glasscock is Mills, of the Ohio House, instead of Wells, as we were informed. The Colusa Sun of the 21st gives the following account of the affair:

"A very sad affair occurred at Spring Valley election precinct, on Wednesday, in which Marsh Glasscock was killed in his saloon, by Wm. R. Mills, of the Ohio House. Mills tells us that Glasscock was somewhat in liquor and was abusing another man, when he (Mills) undertook to explain to him and save trouble, but Glasscock only picked up a bar glass and threw at Mills, striking him on the top of the head, causing an ugly wound. Mills instantly drew a small Derringer pistol and shot him, the ball, it is stated, passing through his heart. After he was shot he threw several bottles at the crowd, indiscriminately, one of which struck Charley Elsey, hurting him pretty badly, but he expired in a few moments. Mills came to town and delivered himself into the hands of the Sheriff. He was taken before Justice Weaver, and gave bonds for his appearance on Tuesday next for examination. Mills considers himself justified on the ground of self-defense. The Coroner summoned a jury and held an inquest, and after hearing the evidence a verdict of justifiable homicide was brought in."

DR. J. D. PARKISON.—This gentleman has taken posession of the drug store recently purchased of Read & Magee, replenished the stock with a complete assortment of drugs, medicines, paints, oils, perfumery, books, stationery, etc., and devotes his personal attention to the business. The doctor has for several years been a practicing phisician in Washington Territory and elsewhere, and being also a practical chemist and apothecary will hereafter devote his whole time and attention to his store, for which business he is eminently qualified. The doctor's family will also be here in a few weeks.

VALLEJO.—A wealthy land Association has purchased all the improved land it can secure in Vallejo, with the idea that that city will become a great commercial rival to San Francisco. Leland Stanford, President of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, and other wealthy and influential men are the incorporators.

REOPENING OF THE HUNTER HOUSE.—Mrs. Gifford has taken the Hunter House, which has lately been refitted, and will open it on Monday next as a boarding and lodging house, and will do her best to accommodate all who favor the house with their patronage. Board and lodging can be had by the day or week.

FRESH PORK.—Now the cool weather has arrived, fresh pork is very palatable. Asberry has some of excellent quality as we can testify, for we enjoyed a meal from some of the nicest tender-loin from his market that we have had in many a year.

TAXES.—Those who do not want to leave their taxes to become delinquent can pay them hereafter at the Sheriff's office until Monday, the 20th of November, after which date the books close.

MORE NEW GOODS.—Thomas & Hunt have been receiving large consignments of dry goods, clothing, etc. They also have on sale Hollihan & Freid's patent rustic window shades, the best ever invented.

I. O. O. F. Resolutions of Respect.

HALL YOLO LODGE No. 169, I.O.O.F., DAVISVILLE, Oct. 18th, 1871.

To the N. G., V. G., officers and members of Yolo Lodge, No. 169, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of the members of this Lodge, occasioned by the death of Brother W. H. Tappe, beg leave to submit the following:

Resolved, That in his death our Lodge has lost a zealous and efficient member, and the community a good and faithful citizen.

Resolved, That we mingle our sorrow, which can be but faint and feeble, comparatively, with that of the immediately bereaved, the beloved companion and fatherless child, whose wounded hearts no human solace can heal.

Resolved, That our Charter and Hall be draped in mourning, and the members wear the usual badge for the period of thirty days in respect to the memory of Brc. W. H. Tappe.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread in full upon the minutes of our Lodge, and a copy of the same, under seal of the Lodge, be sent to the widow of the deceased; also a copy to the New Age—the official organ of our order—and a copy to THE YOLO DEMOCRAT.

DEATH OF MRS. KEAN'S MOTHER.—The Grass Valley Union of Oct. 25th contains the following notice of the death of Mrs. Ellabeth Coombe, who was mother of Mrs. Kean, wife of A. C. Kean, Treasurer of Yolo county:

Under the proper head will be found a notice of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Coombe, of Randolph Flat, an old and highly respected resident of that place. Mrs. Coombe was a native of Devonshire, England, from whence she came to this country when sixteen years old, and settled in Illinois while that was yet a Territory. From thence she came with her family to California in 1853, and located at Randolph Flat, where she resided until her death. She died at the ripe age of seventy-six, and leaves four children and seven grand-children to mourn the loss of an affectionate mother and grand-parent.

TOWN TRUSTEES.—The Board held meetings on Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week. The principal business transacted was preliminary to the grading of Main street, and H. N. Sandford was authorized to make a survey and estimate of the cost of the work. The Attorney and Clerk of the Board here prepared an ordinance for the opening and improvement of streets which will soon be published, and also proposals for doing certain street work. An order was made for the employment of a night watchman.

THE DRAWING.—We are informed by the managers of the Woodland Gift Concert that arrangements are being completed for the drawing of prizes. The wheel is on hand, the tags are being prepared, and as soon as agents make their returns complete announcement will be made to the public of the precise day when the drawing will come off. Tickets can still be procured for a few days longer.

REMOVED.—Nangle, the Anatomical Boot Maker has removed his shop to the Good Templars' building, opposite Roberts' livery stable and west of the railroad. He will make fashionable boots to order that will fit like a charm. He respectfully invites the patronage of his old customers and the public in general.

CEMETERY ELECTION.—Posters announce that the annual election of Trustees of the Woodland Cemetery Association will take place at the Post-office to-day (Saturday), at three o'clock.

THE COSMOPOLITAN DRAWING.—The managers are settling with agents and the Committee is making every preparation for the Drawing. The day will shortly be announced to the public.

TEACHERS' MEETING.—Superintendent Darby desires the teachers of Yolo county to meet in Woodland on Saturday, November 4th, to prepare for the coming County Institute.

GOOD OPPORTUNITY.—Parties desiring to rent a small, neat, new and comfortable house, at a low rental, can find such an one by inquiring at this office.

RAIN.—It rained for an hour on Friday morning quite steadily, laying the dust nicely, and during the day we had occasional light showers.

WOOD'S HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE.—The November number of this really interesting magazine is to hand, showing decided improvement. Its corps of editors and contributors make the Household rank as a first-class magazine, although the price is only one dollar a year. Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, James Parton, Kate Hamilton, Theodore Tilton, Horace Greeley, Gail Hamilton, Dio Lewis, Isaac Waldron, John G. Saxe, Brick Pomeroy, and other first-class literary writers have articles in the present number. A song set to music by W. T. Giffe introduces the number, followed by the Minister's Housekeeper; Wife of Washington; The Children's Portion; Should Women Wear Jewelry; Capital and Labor; The Pioneer Boy; Human Hair; Live not to Yourself; The Difficulties and Dangers of Publishing; The Melon and the Rose; Kathleen, the Little Clay Bearer; The Captain as a Man of Letters; etc.—all good and entertaining. Address S. S. Wood, Newburgh, New York, who will mail three numbers of the magazine free, including November. The liberality of the publisher enables us to offer the Magazine and the DEMOCRAT for $4 a year, cash in advance—the regular price of our own paper alone.

SENT TO STOCKTON.—An insane man named David Mader, was taken to the Insane Asylum at Stockton by Deputy Sheriff Lawson on Wednesday last.

An Appeal From Michigan.

DETROIT, October 24th.—The Michigan State Relief Committee has issued the following appeal to the people of the United States:

"We need instant and plentiful aid. From twelve to fifteen thousand people at least in the State of Michigan having lost their homes, food, clothing, crops, horses and cattle, on the night of the Chicago fire. Two thousand people on the east shore of Lake Michigan, and five or six thousand on the west shore of Lake Huron, were reduced to almost absolute destitution. Within two or three weeks other small villages and settlements have been blotted out. The number of individual farm houses, barns, and frontier dwellings destroyed by the all-pervading fire cannot, from want of information, be accurately calculated. The aggregate we know to be enormous. The fires are still burning and new ones springing up. The area of ruin and devastation is daily increasing. The intensity and dramatic magnificence of the calamities which have overwhelmed other cities and villages are lacking here, but the suffering exists. A long, hard, cold winter is approaching. Large numbers of these people are accessible only by water, and navigation will soon be closed; scarcely a month or six weeks now remain in which to feed, clothe and shelter them for the winter season, which extends far into the months of spring. They must be helped now, or they will perish. They will need, too, in the months of spring, seed and implements for the harvests of next year. The greater portion of them must commence life entirely anew, and at the beginning of winter their issolation from the centers of commerce, and the means of communication, makes the problem of relief all the more difficult and the more urgent. The people of Michigan have nobly responded to the appeals which this misery has made to their sympathy and generosity, but they are severely crippled indirectly in their business by the Chicago fire, and directly by the assistance they gave to the sufferers from the calamnity before they were aware of the demands which would be made upon them at home. Many of them too have lost their resources by the fires in this State. In their name, and in behalf of the victims already known, and of many whom we fear are yet unknown, we ask prompt and efficient aid from our benevolent fellow citizens everywhere. Money and supplies may be sent direct to the Michigan Relief Committee, at Detroit or Grand Rapids."

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY NEAR WASHINGTON, — The Sacramento Union gives the following account of a difficulty which occurred about two miles from Washington in this county, on Sunday evening last, and resulted in the death of one of the parties and the loss of a leg to the other:

"About nine o'clock Sunday evening a difficulty took place at the Two-mile House, on the main road leading out of Washington, between two men named Edward Benning and a man named Wallace, which resulted in the death of Benning and the serious if not fatal wounding of Wallace. It would seem that Benning had been employed to take charge of the place during the absence of the owner, who is at work in this city. Sunday he came to Sacramento, leaving Wallace in charge of the bar. Returning about nine o'clock, Benning, who had become inebriated, quarreled with Wallace, and seizing a gun declared he would shoot him. Wallace endeavored to get the weapon from him, and they finally had a tussle for its possession. While they were struggling upon the floor the gun, as Wallace says, was accidentaly discharged, its contents passing through Wallace's thigh and into Benning's right breast, creating shocking wounds. Benning died almost immediately. Wallace called for help sometime, but, this being unavailing, crawled from the saloon in the hope of making his way home. Weak from loss of blood, he could make but very slow progress, but a man employed on Mike Bryte's ranch, passing by, discovered him, and shortly afterwards all was done for him that could be by the neighbors, until a physician from the city arrived. His leg was amputated yesterday afternoon at about four o'clock. Justice Stephenson of Washington held an inquest yesterday over the body of Benning, the verdict being to the effect that he came to his death from a shot-gun wound, received while engaged in a contest with Wallace."

A MALICIOUS RADICAL FALSEHOOD NAILED.—We copy the following from Brick Pomeroy's own paper:

About two thousand Republican papers are stating that the editor of Pomeroy's Democrat has been lecturing in California on the "Necessity of the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln." Such statements are false in every particular. Mr. Pomeroy never having lectured on that subject; never having advertised to; never having even thought of delivering such a lecture till after seeing it stated in Republican papers that he had been thus engaged. So much for a Republican lie. The only subject on which the editor of this paper lectured in California was "Success," a subject nearly as far outside of politics as a Republican editor is outside of Heaven.

COTTON.—The Sutter Banner, published at Yuba City, says:

Wm. Mason, on Butte Slough, in this county has cultivated the cotton plant with great success for the past two seasons. There is no question about the success of raising cotton in this valley. We look forward to the time when the Sacramento River will be planted on either side in extensive cotton fields. With our advantages of climate, California can compete with the cotton States of the South, and allow a higher compensation for labor. Now that we have triumphed in wool-growing, and in the manufacture of woolen fabrics, let us also engage in the cotton business and hasten the day of cotton mills.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—The Sacramento Union contains the following, which will be appreciated by a liberal minded community:

"REIMBURSED HIM.—A number of Sacramentans yesterday made up a purse of 99 cents in currency, and forwarded it to W. G. English of Indianapolis, the millionaire, who recently donated one dollar to the Chicago relief fund. They stated that if he did not feel able to give to the cause the one cent remaining they would take up another subscription and send it to him."

THE use of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer brings new hair upon bald heads, if the hair follicles are not wholly destroyed. Try it.

For the very best Photographs, go to BRADLEY & RULOFSON, No. 429 Montgomery Street, San Francisco. ☞Closed on Sundays.☜

PATRONIZE HOME MECHANICS.—Those intending to have their Buggies, Carriages and Wagons repainted or varnished "to preserve the wood and save expense," can have them as neatly, as well and as handsomely done in Woodland as anywhere in the State. There are several paint shops in Woodland where they pretend to do buggy painting; but those wanting a good, handsome and serviceable job done, painted as a buggy should be, by all means should take it to ELLIOTT'S SHOP, for he has in his employ as good as any if not the best buggy painter on this coast. Besides, he uses none but the best paints, oils and varnishes; he buys no material "because it is cheap;" his motto is that the best is the cheapest always. His varnish and paint rooms can't be excelled anywhere, in being well finished and free from dust and dirt. The above superior advantages over other shops, is the reason why Elliot turns out better looking, better finished and more durable, and consequently gives customers better satisfaction than can be done in any shop within a thousand miles of Woodland. He has the best of mechanics in all the other branches of his business; but we call particular attention to his painting because good painters in these parts are as "few and far between as Angel's visits." Give him a call and he will give you satisfaction and charge you enough, too. He has finished and for sale quite a good assortment of Buggies and Farm and Spring Wagons, which he is offering at greatly reduced prices. oc7-1m

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Trust what Time Sanctions.

The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the divinity, may, in some cases, be open to doubt, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses, extending through a series of years, and all to the same purport, is worthy of credence, admits of no question. Upon such testimony the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an antidote and cure for many ailments is based. During the twenty years that it has been before the world, innumerable preparations intended to compete with it, have gone up like rockets and come down like the extinguished sticks. In the meantime the progress of that incomparable tonic has been swift and steady—always upward and onward like the eagle's flight. Its introduction produced a revolution in therapeutics, and it proved to be one of those salutary revolutions that cannot go backwards. To-day Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in Christendom, and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation, domestic or imported, on this side of the Atlantic. As a cure for dyspepsia, billious disorders, nervous affections, general debility, and as a preventive of epidemic fevers, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the ambitious country dealers who endeavor to foist their local abortions on the public in its stead, how futile their small attempts to cajole the community must necessarily be. Where the game fish have failed there is certainly no chance for the "suckers." oc

Opposite Gas and Water Works,

WOODLAND, CAL.

LIVERYMEN, FARMERS AND TEAMSTERS

Will find my make of BUGGIES, SPRING and LUMBER WAGONS, the best in any market for their use.

REASONS WHY:

BECAUSE they have as good if not the best reputation at home. Each Wagon is perfect in all its parts.

BECAUSE my prices are as low as the lowest for first-class work.

BECAUSE I can furnish the highest home testimonials as to their durability and lightness of draft.

BECAUSE none but the best and most experienced mechanics are employed in their construction.

BECAUSE they are built upon scientific principles, combining the greatest strength with lightness of draft.

BECAUSE wherever introduced they are generally preferred by Liverymen, Farmers and Freighters.

BECAUSE they are made in a very DRY CLIMATE, and from that fact are far superior for service to those built in more moist or damp parts of the country.

BECAUSE I give rules for taking care of carriages.

First—The carriage-house should be apart from the stable, as the ammonia arising from horse manure will in a very short time destroy the varnish on a carriage, and then the owner ignorantly charges the carriage maker with using inferior varnish.

Second—In washing a buggy cold water should be used freely, so as to remove the dust and mud before using the sponge and chamois skin.

Third—Never turn the hose under or on the seat, for the water will loosen the canvass and glue, and cause the corners to give way and the body to go to pieces.

Fourth—To preserve the wood and save expense, the carriage should be kept thoroughly painted and varnished.

Fifth—I am better prepared than ever, to Paint, Ornament and Varnish Carriages, Wagons, etc. I have in my employ the best of buggy painters, and use none but the best articles of paints, oils and varnishes; the above in connection with my Paint Shop and Varnish Rooms, which are as good if not the best on this Coast, being hard finished and free from dust. I can, and have turned out as smooth, clean and nice finished jobs as can be done in the State.

Sixth—Those wishing to get their buggies, carriages, etc., repaired and painted, will do well to call at my shop and examine my superior advantages over other shops. I am willing to abide by the injunction, "by their works ye shall know them." I am willing that my work shall praise me; I ask no other endorsement. This endorsement I have had in past years; this I expect to merit and maintain in the future. oc7-3m

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

JUDGE S. HEYDENFELDT says: "My attention was called to it about eighteen months ago, when I had been suffering with rheumatism for more than a year, and had failed to find relief from other remedies. The YERBA SANTA relieved me entirely in two days. Some ten or twelve cases of Rheumatism, two cases of Gout and two cases of Neuralgia have been relieved within my immediate knowledge." R. H. SINTON says: "I fully concur with Judge Heydenfeldt in regard to the curative powers of YERBA SANTA. I have myself used it, and take pleasure in recommending its use to those afflicted with Rheumatism in any of its forms." T. J. JENKINS, M. D., (Physician to Butte County Hospital,) says: "I have used YERBA SANTA for some years in my private practice as physician. I have found it invaluable in cases of Chronic Rheumatism, and of much benefit as an alterative Blood Purifier and tonic." FRANK MATHEWS, of Oroville, says: "Some years since, I was a martyr to Rheumatism, and crippled in hands and feet, unable to move except with crutches, at all times suffering great pain. I was induced to try YERBA SANTA. I soon experienced great benefit from its use. I am at the present time strong and in health, and recommend all afflicted who are as I was to try it." CHAS. WALDYER, of Cherokee, Butte county, states: "For many years a sufferer from Rheumatism in its most painful type I sought relief in vain until I was induced to try the YERBA SANTA, when I found perfect restoration to health. I have recommended it to my many friends, and in all cases a perfect, a speedy cure was the result of its use." J. R. ROBERTS, of San Francisco, says: "I had for three years been afflicted with the Rheumatism, to such an extent that in all that time I was unable to do any work. I was at last induced to try YERBA SANTA; after using two bottles I was completely cured, and am now as well as I ever was in my life." M. H. DARRACH (County Clerk of Butte county,) says: "I have seen much of the beneficial effects of YERBA SANTA in Scrofula, also in Salt Rheum, Rheumatism and Neuralgic affections. I believe I know of no instance where it has failed to cure." YERBA SANTA completely restores the system when impaired by disease, revives the action of the kidneys, and radically cures scrofula, Salt Rheum and all eruptive and cutaneous diseases. It is PURELY VEGETABLE, being made from an herb indigenous to California. It is therefore peculiarly suitable for use by Females and Children, as a Blood Purifier and Renovator. YERBA SANTA is for sale by all dealers in family medicines.

Interesting to Pre-Emption Settlers.

John G. McCallum, Register of the Sacramento United States Land Office, has written the following brief but comprehensive letter in answer to a pre-emption settler. It contains information important to all pre-emption settlers whose claims have not been perfected. While condensed, the information is given in plain language and enables every settler whose claim is uncontested to be his own lawyer. We would advise settlers to file this paper or cut out the following letter for future reference:

U. S. LAND OFFICE, }
SACRAMENTO, CAL., Oct., 1871. }

In answer to questions as to time and manner of making proof and payment of pre-emption claims, the following information is given:

1st. Where the declaratory statement was filed before the 14th of July, 1860, proof and payment, or location, must be made before the 14th of July next (1872.)

2d. Where the settlement was made on unsurveyed land, such proof, etc., must be made within thirty-three months of the filing of the township plat (including such claim) in the United States Land Office.

3d. Where the settlement was made on surveyed land, such proof, etc., must be made within thirty-three months of the date of settlement, with the exceptions above stated as to filings made before July 14th, 1870.

4th. At any time—three months after filing and six months after settlement, and within the time above specified—such proofs and payment or location can be made; failure to do so within the time specified works a forfeiture of the claim.

5th. These proofs can be made by one credible witness, knowing the facts, besides the claimant. They are to be made at this office and must show that the claimant is a qualified preemptor—his settlement, continued residence and improvements upon the land, as claimed in his declaratory statement. If the claimant is naturalized, or has declared his intention to become a citizen, his naturalization papers must be produced on the hearing. No amount of improvement is specified, but sufficient must be shown to satisfy the land officers that the settlement was made in good faith.

6th. As to cash entry or location, the proof being satisfactory, the claimant can purchase or locate with Agricultural College scrip, under the act of July 1st, 1870, or military bounty land warrants. Such scrip or warrants, when genuine and duly assigned, received at $1 25 per acre for the number of acres specified on its face, the same as money.

7th. It will, of course, require considerable time to take the proofs in all cases requiring to be proved upon the 14th day of next July. To proceed in order, and avoid the delay which might otherwise ensue, such claimants will please notify this office promptly as to when they wish to prove up; whereupon we will fix the time and notify them accordingly. In such cases the claimant can write to this office to this effect: "Please set my case and give notice;" or, if the claimant knows there are no adverse claims, his proofs, etc., can be made at any time within the date above stated. The better way, however, is to write first to have the time fixed.—Sacramento Union, October 11th.

WATER WORKS OF ROME.—In old Rome there were nine aqueducts to supply the city with water, and the amount furnished for each inhabitant could hardly be less than three hundred gallons daily, or more than six times as much as is supplied to each person in London at the present time. One of the aqueducts was fifty-four miles long. No modern city ever had such perfect arrangements for baths and perfect cleanliness as Rome. The Roman Sewers for carrying off the filth of the city were also more perfect. The main one, cloaca maxima, had a series of small channels flowing into it from all parts of the city, rendering the drainage most complete.

FOR the year ending on the 30th of June, 1871, the whole number of immigrants arriving in the United States was 321,350. There were 190,428 males and 130,922 females. Germany sent (including all countries speaking the German language) 84,435; England, 56,530; Ireland, 57,439; of Scandinavians, 21,132; France, Switzerland, and Belgium, 6,100. The total of British subjects (including Canadians) was 189,993. The Germans and Scandinavians number nearly 109,000. From British North American colonies came 47,000.

WAS any Democratic member of Congress ever convicted of bigamy? Was any Democratic President of the United States ever called on to pardon such a criminal? Did any Democratic President of the United States ever pardon such a criminal? Did any Democratic President of the United States ever commit such a flagrant violation of the law of the land and of the law of the several States, as to pardon a man who had violated all those laws, and who had been convicted by an impartial jury of the crime?

TWO CROPS OF POTATOES.—The Sacramento Union says: On Poole's rancho, Grand Island, at the head of Steamboat Slough, potatoes were planted on the 23d of February and harvested on the 20th of June, yielding twenty tons to the acre. A second crop, seed from the first crop, was planted on the 23d of June and harvested on the 7th of October. The product was not weighed, but is estimated larger than the first crop.

IT is estimated that during the last five centuries more than £50,000,000 worth of real estate has been washed away from the eastern coast of England by the encroachments of the sea. A number of villages and towns which used to be set down on the old maps have entirely disappeared.

OVER one half of the entire cavalry force and nearly one half of the entire infantry force of the United States army is idling in the South, or at convenient striking distance of it, on the pretext of Ku-klux outrages, but really in preparation for bayoneting free suffrage.

DEAD animals are well utilized in France by immersing their soft parts in a very feeble solution of hydrochloric acid, which will soon transform them into an odorless pulp. This is to be mixed with phosphate of lime, and the result is a manure of the best quality.

THE great wisdom of the income tax has been proved by the fact that the national income from that source has been $332,000,000, and the cost of its collection $340,000,000.

THE DOMESTIC
Sewing Machine!

A New Favorite in California.

The Domestic Sewing Machine has just been introduced into this State, and is now offered to the public. It makes the Shuttle or Lock Stitch, alike on both sides, uses a straight needle, and its range of work is from the heaviest to the most delicate fabric, sewing every kind perfectly. It has a self-adjusting tension, which requires no alteration in changing the thread, or in sewing different thicknesses. In simplicity and durability it is unequaled. One great advantage in this machine is, that it will sew over thick seams without difficulty.

The Domestic Stands on Its Merits Alone,

Which have secured it large sales wherever it has been introduced. It combines beauty of appearance with easy, quiet action and perfect work.

CARRIAGE AND WAGON MANUFACTORY!

CORNER MAIN AND FOURTH STS.,
Opposite Gas and Water Works,
WOODLAND, CAL.

LIVERYMEN, FARMERS

AND TEAMSTERS

Will find my make of BUGGIES, SPRING and LUMBER WAGONS, the best in any market for their use.

REASONS WHY:

BECAUSE they have as good if not the best reputation at Home. Each Wagon is perfect in all its parts.

BECAUSE my prices are as low as the lowest for first-class work.

BECAUSE I can furnish the highest home testimonials as to their durability and lightness of draft.

BECAUSE none but the best and most experienced mechanics are employed in their construction.

BECAUSE they are built upon scientific principles, combining the greatest strength with lightness of draft.

BECAUSE wherever introduced they are generally preferred by Liverymen, Farmers and Freighters.

BECAUSE they are made in a very DRY CLIMATE, and from that fact are far superior for service to those built in more moist or damp parts of the country.

BECAUSE I give rules for taking care of carriages.

First—The carriage-house should be apart from the stable, as the ammonia arising from horse manure will in a very short time destroy the varnish on a carriage, and then the owner ignorantly charges the carriage maker with using inferior varnish.

Second—In washing a buggy cold water should be used freely, so as to remove the dust and mud before using the sponge and chamois skin.

Third—Never turn the hose under or on the seat, for the water will loosen the canvas and glue, and cause the corners to give way and the body to go to pieces.

Fourth—To preserve the wood and save expense, the carriage should be kept thoroughly painted and varnished.

Fifth—I am better prepared than ever, to Paint, Ornament, and Varnish Carriages, Wagons, etc. I have in my employ the best of buggy painters, and use none but the best articles of paints, oils and varnishes; the above in connection with my Paint Shop and Varnish Rooms, which are as good if not the best on this Coast, being hard finished and free from dust. I can, and have turned out as smooth, clean and nice finished jobs as can be done in the State.

Sixth—Those wishing to get their buggies, carriages, etc., repaired and painted, will do well to call at my shop and examine my superior advantages over other shops. I am willing to abide by the injunction, "by their works ye shall know them." I am willing that my work shall praise me; I ask no other endorsement. This endorsement I have had in past years; this I expect to merit and maintain in the future.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

The Great Medical Discovery!

Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands
Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merits of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion of Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Viscera Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, they are a specific.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," etc., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

History of Sacramento.

Sacramento City is, comparatively speaking, a small place, alongside of most of the cities in the United States. Were it not for the indomitable perseverance of its inhabitants, it would long ago have been among the things that were. It has had severe fires, sweeping the whole city out of existence; but only to be rebuilt again. It has been flooded a number of times, destroying hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property, but still it lives and prospers. It is a well-known fact that it was the perseverance of Sacramento people that built the Central Pacific Railroad. Most all large California enterprises have originated in Sacramento. Many of the largest mercantile houses on this coast obtained their start in this city. It is now proposed to organize a Free Labor Exchange. This is not a local institution, but will benefit not only the whole of this State, but also Oregon and Nevada as well. This Gift Concert has been chosen as the most feasible manner to raise a fund large enough to place the Labor Exchange on a sound basis. The enterprise has been undertaken by some of Sacramento's best citizens, who have the requisite perseverance and nerve to carry it through successfully.

I do not wish to inform you, reader, that Dr. Wonderful, or any other man, has discovered a remedy that cures consumption, when the lungs are half consumed, in short, will cure all diseases, whether of mind, body, or estate, make men live forever, and leave death to play for want of work, and is designed to make our subinary sphere a blissful paradise, to which Heaven itself shall be but a side show. You have heard enough of that kind of humbuggery. But when I tell you that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will positively cure the worst cases of Catarrh in the head, I only assert that which thousands can testify to. I will pay $500 reward for a case that I cannot cure. A pamphlet giving symptoms and other information sent to any address. This remedy is sold by most druggists in all parts of the world. Price 50 cents. Sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of sixty cents, or four packages for two dollars. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. See that my private stamp, which is a positive guarantee of genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. Remember that this private stamp, issued by the United States Government expressly for stamping my medicines, has my portrait, name and address, and the words "U. S. Certificate of genuineness," engraved upon it, and need not be mistaken. Don't be swindled by travelers and others representing themselves as Dr. Sage; I am the only man now living that has the knowledge and right to manufacture the genuine Dr. Sage's Catarrh remedy, and I never travel to sell this medicine.
